Mr. Noonan—New Sidewalk—Chickens and an Oil Stove—Fate of Rural Postmasters.

There is a report in town that Mr. Thomas Noonan formerly coachman for Mrs. Watts Curtis, of Saco Hill, has purchased the good will of a well known business concern, and in due time will take charge of the place. The price paid is stated to be a large one, but that is a private business matter. All of which goes to show business is picking up, that people have plenty of money, and that rents in town command a good price.

Three Perry children, John, Alfred and Dorothy, have had the measles. The report is they are doing well.

The Leahy children have recovered from the measles.

Miss Lizzie Lahey, who is in the employ in New York of Mrs. Mabel Osgood Wright, came to town, Saturday to spend Sunday.

Mr. Carrington Beeman was in town over Sunday.

Miss Morehouse has been visiting home, taking a short vacation from the Pratt Institute, Brooklyn.

Many people are blessing Selectman Fox for the work he has done in causing the thick coating of crushed stone to be placed on the footpath from the old Pickett building to the junction of Unquowa place and Elliott street.

This action of his makes a good and dry walk from Boyle's corner to Beckwith's. And it is a path which is much used. It would be an excellent thing, if the sidewalk from the library corner to Elm's corner could be treated in the same manner. It is very soft, slushy, and muddy, and yet it is the principal walk for the residence of Main street going to the library.

Last week Miss Eleanor Morehouse entertained the whist club. There were twelve tables in operation, followed by refreshments.

There is a report to the effect that Miss Keogh, who has been teaching for sometime in one of the rooms in the new Pickett building, will resign her position and leave at the end of this week for a better paying place in Mt. Vernon, where she is to teach.

Our highest salaries usually draw the best teachers.

Mr. William Hulse, the well known breeder of fancy poultry, had a rather bitter experience with an oil stove a few days ago. He had washed a dozen of his blue ribbon first prize chickens, with the intent to send them to a poultry show. That the hens might get dry sooner than he, he otherwise would, he set an oil stove inside the henhouse and went away for some time. When he returned he found all of his pet chickens dead. The gas from the stove, or the fumes of the oxygen in the small room had been consumed to keep the flame alive, had smothered the chickens, and they were dead.

Mr. Hulse, the husband of Mrs. Lella Joel Hulse who has been singing at Wanamaker's the past week.

Mr. John Hawkins and Mr. Joseph Lee have been drawn as jurymen for the criminal court of common pleas which begins to-day.

In view of the fact which has overtaken the postmaster of Middletown, owing to his political activity in the recent Senatorial contest in this state, a number of our local politicians are discussing what will be the result when nominations for more rural postmasters are made. True, not all nominations come before the Senate for confirmation; only those of a certain class.

Therefore the little fishes are likely to escape. It is thought a postmaster might safely use his influence for a certain presidential candidate, but when he works openly for a senator, he is in some danger of losing his job, if the successful senator thinks it worth his while to turn the town. Politics is a grimy, but the safest way is to keep out of it, especially for those who are holding down government jobs.

It is Wilton, Conn., where Mr. O'Connell, army E. Curtis, of whom it is known, has been stationed.

Massachusetts, as has been stated.

New Flesh-Colored Product That Heals and Hides Skin Imperfections.

A peculiar feature of posam, a new skin discovery, is that it is naturally flesh-colored and contains no grease so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses or any other inflammations, blemishes or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected. It can thus be applied to the entire face, and the color of the skin being immediately restored and the actual healing and curing process accomplished in a few days. It can be had of any pharmacist who sells pure drugs, or from Hamlin's Pharmacy makes a specialty of it. Fifty cents' worth will answer either for the troubles mentioned or in curing ordinary cases of eczema. Itching stops at once.

The Emergency Laboratories, No. 31 West Twenty-fifth street, New York are the sole dispensing agents for posam in the United States, and will send an experimental quantity free by mail in plain wrapper to all who write for it. This will show results after an overnight application.

STRATFORD

Local Sensations—A Nice Postal Regulation—Old Time Wives—Native Actors.

Something in the shape of a sensation serenely bobs up in town, said a gentleman a day or two ago, discussing the latest novelty in human experience, ever since the famous spirit rappings put in an appearance at a well known mansion on Elm street. Then tables danced about, a bible was thrown at the head of a clergyman, and sofa pillows sailed through the air like feathers. There are even those who remember the Rose Ambler case, and the dreadful shooting of a very good Episcopal clergyman by his poor wife, supposed to be suffering from a severe toothache, as the fashion now is. And the times do not improve. Inside twenty-four hours the town has witnessed the breaking up of a proposed prize fight at Capt. Bond's well advertised place on the slippery banks of the wild Housatonic, and on the heels of this comes the attempted suicide of Nathan Miller, a gentleman who was in town several days last week, and who is known to many folks as the partner at one time of Mr. Jordan in the real estate business. And then there is fresh in memory the joy ride in which Benjamin Robinson took part. All these things give the old town an air of San Francisco excitement which is quite enough to induce young men to stay at home and not wish to go off to New York in search of the novel and other adventures. There has recently been considerable complaint on the part of the residents of Main street, who live within the stone's throw of Hard's corner, where the trolley cars dump loads of wild kids from the city who come out to the country just to see what is taking place at the Bond training school. Unseasonable and distracting noises are heard on the street at un-Christian hours of the night, when crowds of human beings pass up and down the street singing renditions and thrilling sonnets set to strange music and unfamiliar language. If this sort of thing keeps on the increase the town will have to commission a police force of its own, and preserve the peace, or at least keep up a show of respectability.

Our wide awake postmaster calls attention to a new postal regulation which has just been hatched up in Washington and published. It is to the effect that when one puts a postage stamp on a letter, great care must be exercised to see that it does not in the least overlap another stamp. If it does the under dog stamp will not be accepted, and the letter will be held for postage. This is quite as nice as it is wise, and to be on the safe side people who put more than one stamp on a letter can place them on different corners of the envelope.

Speaking of divorces, and the fact that not one has taken place in this town for a long while, owing to the knowledge that many of our most desirable ladies prefer to remain single, a gentleman called attention to the strange names which used to be given to women, in other days, when the notion was that a wife lost her identity the moment she became married and was forever after the servant, if not the toy, of her husband. Walking in the old Puritan cemeteries in the rear of Christ church and the library, he pointed out such names as Silence, Submit, Obedience, Mindwell, and Misery Curtis. The old time husband had no notion of women's rights, of whist, embroidery, Colonna, and Art clubs—he expected his wife to slave away her life for his pleasure in the kitchen, and to be the mother of an unconscionable number of children. And she was to be silent, to mind well, to be submissive and obedient. No wonder Mrs. Curtis took the name of Misery. The only remedy is to refuse to take a husband.

The installation of the officers of the Ancient Order of Hibernians takes place this evening, at their hall on Stratford avenue.

Rev. Mr. Bullock still abides in Yonkers. He came to town to take part in the funeral services of Mrs. Mary E. Curtis, and immediately returned. He is helping to convert the people of Yonkers.

Rev. J. M. Blanchard preached yesterday at the Bethany Mission.

Housatonic lodge, N. E. O. P., has finished installing its officers for the ensuing six months.

Next Saturday comes the much talked of baseball contest of which we have heard so much.

A portion of Hamilton Park has been leased to I. D. Farrer for three years and as many months.

There will be an important meeting of the Guild at the home of Miss Emma F. Allen next Wednesday evening.

And now the Housatonic Grange has largely devoted to installations.

William St. John went to Hartford to attend the meeting of the Druggists' Association.

It is related of a man who was born on Strawberry Hill, and had always lived there, that when he went to New Haven for the first time, he remarked that he had no idea the world was half so large.

Today is the longest day between sunrise and sunset the old town has seen this year. Fact, and no mistake!

"As the days lengthen the cold appears to weaken."

This town has bred a live actor, Ezra W. Graham, so it is stated, will take the part of the "Doctor" in the play of Jane Eyre, which is now on the billboards. Lester Allen, who is also known in town, will act the part of the Minister. These are very useful and honorable gentlemen in their respective professions, and the town may be proud of the fact that its young men are turning their thoughts towards serious things.

Miss Dorothy Wheeler is going to the Bermudas.

And now word comes that California is very dull; that the weather is down and broken the dykes; and there is no excitement in Pasadena.

Mr. Berrie, a Derby of Longbrook avenue has had a little white party.

There was a special musical service at Christ church last evening.

A daughter has arrived in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sniffin.

Rev. J. W. Eggleston officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Sarah C. Brewster.

Theodore Leavenworth and family sail on the 6th of next month for Porto Rico.

Horace King of this town has recently married a young lady in Bridgeport.

THE STOCK MARKET. (Watson and Alper's)

The average stock market list is well below the range of money prices, and dividend returns that have withstood the 1907 panic must be well secured. In such a situation the inevitable course of prices must be upward, even though we have our occasional setbacks, as well as our rises, for the time being. A fair sized advance seems due, though a sustained market is likely to be deferred for a while.
